

What's New ...

Gr 3-5—This series has stunning photos, fascinating facts, and intriguing examples. School Library Journal

Meet Gwendolyn

Gwendolyn is the author of seven children's books. She also writes for children's magazines including Highlights for Children. Her articles range from explaining how wind turbines work to tapirs and barking tree frogs. Gwendolyn's work has appeared in reading textbooks and reading enrichment programs.

A former middle school math teacher, Gwendolyn now writes fulltime to bring the thrill of reading an exciting book to children everywhere.

Gwendolyn writes from her home in Oklahoma City.

Gwendolyn@GwendolynHooks.com
www.GwendolynHooks.com

Children's Book
Author

Gwendolyn Hooks

Books are the doorways to the world.

Plan a school or library visit with children's book author
Gwendolyn Hooks

During presentations Gwendolyn will -

Show how a finished book starts with a kernel of an idea.

Explore the world of editors and publishers.

Help students create their own books.

Sessions are approximately 30-45 minutes and includes question & answer time. Presentations can be tailored to fit the grade level of each group.

To schedule a school visit-

Please contact Gwendolyn at 405/672-6085 or send an email to

Gwendolyn@GwendolynHook.com

For more information about

Gwendolyn, visit

www.GwendolynHooks.com

Author of . . .

Presenter

ALA (July 2009)
Oklahoma City Arts After School Program
Arkansas Association of School Librarians
Red Dirt Book Festival
EncycloMedia
Oklahoma Teachers
Association
Oklahoma City Schools
Putnam City Schools
Mid-Del Schools
Fort Worth Schools
Metropolitan, Perkins, and

Gwendolyn@GwendolynHooks.com
www.GwendolynHooks.com